

Ohio Medieval Colloquium – Spring 2003

Saturday March 15, 2003, 12:30 – 4:30pm

hosted by

Columbus State Community College
Arts and Science Division & The Humanities Department
115 Technology Lab (formerly Academic C)
Columbus, Ohio

12:30 – 1:00 Introductions

Ample refreshments will be available throughout the day in the conference room.
Discussion sessions will follow each of the papers.

1:00 – 2:15 Session I

"Christine de Pizan's Ditie de Jehanne d'Arc"
Heather Arden (University of Cincinnati)

"Early Crusader Coins and Political Identity"
Mark Bocija (Columbus State Community College)

2:15 – 2:30 Break

2:30 – 3:45 Session II

"John of the Cross: In Search of a Gay Patron Saint?"
Mick Weems (The Ohio State University)

"Hrotsvitha: 10th century Terrence"
Megan Mateer (Bowling Green University)

3:45 – 4:00 Break

4:00 – 4:45 Session III

"The John Thomas Shakeshaft Tradition: A Brief History of the Dunmow Flich Trials or Bringing Home the Bacon"
Keith Pepperell (Columbus State Community College)

We can adjust the schedule to accommodate one more presenter if anyone else would like to share their work.

5:00 – 7:00 Dinner and Refreshments

Following the Colloquium we have reservations at Claddagh Irish Pub and Restaurant located in the Columbus Brewery District (585 Front Street, about 2 miles from the college)

8:00pm The Irish Band Heartstone will perform at Claddagh