

Ohio Medieval Colloquium – Fall 2005

Saturday October 8, 2005, 11:30am – 5:30pm

hosted by

Shawnee State University

Mickelthwaite Banquet Hall in the Student Center

11:30 – 12:30 Session I

“Woe unto the man from whom scandal comes’: The Case of Abbot Arnold of Morimond and Bernard of Clairvaux”

Marc Bocija (Columbus State Community College)

“The Genre of the Ordre de Bel Aise”

Richard Green (The Ohio State University)

12:45 – 2:00 Light Lunch followed by a brief business meeting

2:00 – 3:30 Session II

“Recording the Future of Iberia: History and Miracle in Asturian and Leonese Chronicles of the Reconquest”

Xenia Bonch-Bruevich (Wright State University)

“The Erotic in Islamic Literature: The Paradox of Joseph and Zulaika”

John Quinn (University of Dayton)

“Ottonian Diplomacy and Notions of Western European Superiority”

James Forse (Bowling Green State University)

3:45 – 4:15 Coffee/Tea Break

4:30 – 5:30 Session III

“The Orkney Revenge and the destruction of the Realm in Le Morte d’Arthur”

Peter Schwartz (Elmira College, New York)

“Dinadan and the Knightly Code: Exception Accepted”

Jim Slocombe (Bishop’s University, Quebec)

6:30pm Dinner