

Ohio Medieval Colloquium – Fall 2006

Saturday, October 7, 2006, 11:30am – 5:00pm

hosted by

Wright State University

Explorer Room (E103), Student Union, in the upper level of the building

Dayton, Ohio

11:30 – 12:00 Introductions and Coffee

12:00 – 1:30 Session I

"Cloister and Cathedral: Two Contesting Visions of Piety in the Chronicle of Morigny"

Seth Ford (University of Akron)

"Choosing Sides: National Politics in Urban Settings During the War of the Armagnacs and Burgundians (1410-1435)"

Tim Pollack-Lagushenko (Wright State University)

"Historians of Psychology and Historians of Philosophy On the Analysis of Inner Sense in Medieval Cognitive Theory"

Anthony J. Lisska (Denison University)

1:30 – 2:15 Lunch

2:15 – 3:45 Session II

"The History Cluster in Fragment VII of the Canterbury Tales"

Miriamne Ara Krummel (University of Dayton)

"Gwynevere: Spouse, Seductress, Shrew and Saint"

Peter Schwartz (Elmira College)

TBA

Heidi Breuer (Wright State University)

3:45 – 4:00 Break

4:00 – 5:00 Session III

"Beyond Beowulf: Tolkien's Sources in the Other Sections of Cotton Vitellius A.xv"

James McNelis (Wilmington College)

"The Pedlar Robbed by Apes Topos: Print to Parchment and Back Again"

John Friedman (Kent State University)

6:00pm Dinner at Scotese's Italian Restaurant

1375 N Fairfield Rd., Beavercreek, OH 45432