

Ohio Medieval Colloquium – Spring 2006

Saturday April 8, 2006, 12:00 – 5:15pm

hosted by

Columbus State Community College
Arts and Science Division & The Humanities Department
Nestor Hall Seminar Room B
Columbus, Ohio

12:00 – 12:30 Introductions

Ample refreshments will be available throughout the day in the conference room.

12:30 – 2:00 Session I

"Relics, Place and Power: 'Tactile Piety' in Winchester and London"

Robyn Malo-Johnson (The Ohio State University)

"Julian of Norwich in T.S. Eliot's 'Little Gidding': The Collaboration between a medieval Contemplative and a Modern Poet"

Amy Hume (Ohio University)

"The Fairy Queen's Proving/Improving of the Rapist Knight in Chaucer's Wife of Bath's Tale"

Catherine Rock (Stark State College of Technology)

2:00 – 2:15 Break

2:15 – 3:45 Session II

"Kidnappers, Murderers and Assorted Villains in Malory's Le Morte D'Arthur"

Peter Schwartz (Elmira College)

"The Politics of Accountability in the Thirteenth-Century Norman Church"

Adam Davis (Denison University)

"Pity, Masculinity and 'Race' in The Sowdone of Babylon"

Patricia DeMarco (Ohio Wesleyan University)

3:45 – 4:00 Break

4:15-5:15 Session III

"Merchant Copy-letters; How Marco Bembo Controlled his Business Operations c. 1480"

Eleanor Congdon (Youngstown State University)

"Who Was The Real Balian of Ibelin?"

Tim Davis (Columbus State Community College)

6:00pm Dinner at Bravo Italian Kitchen

Vantage Dr. at Crosswoods, next to the 270loop.