

Ohio Medieval Colloquium – Fall 2008

Saturday, November 1, 2008, 10:45am – 4:45pm

hosted by

Kent State University
112 Satterfield Hall

10:45 Welcome

11:00 – 12:30 Session I

“Late Scholastic Intuitionism and Nominalist Theology”

Gene Pendleton (Kent State University)

“The Medieval Reception of Aristotle’s Categories”

Gina Zavota (Kent State University)

“The Middle French Secrets d’histoire naturelle: an Edition and English Translation”

John Block Friedman (University of Illinois/Kent State University, Salem)

12:30 – 1:30 Lunch (sponsored by English Department)

1:30 – 3:00 Session II

“The Intersection of Vertical and Horizontal Cosmologies in Beowulf”

Earl Anderson (Cleveland State University)

“Potions, Poisons, and Antidotes in Malory’s Le Morte d’Arthur”

Peter C. Schwartz (Elmira College)

“Sir Eglamour and ‘Old Bangum’”

Richard Firth Green (The Ohio State University)

3:15 – 4:45 Session III

“Economic Reconstruction or Corporate Raiding?: Monastic Ascription in 17th-century Russia”

Isolde Thyrêt (Kent State University)

“Abbot Suger’s Choir Stalls in His Renovated Abbey Church of St. Denis”

Diane Scillia (Kent State University)

“Staging the Bethersden Lude Beate Cristine in 1520”

Don-John Dugas (Kent State University)