

This mini-concert will explore the sound world of Cervantes, featuring music and instruments referenced in his writings. A variety of Spanish song tunes, dances and instrumental variations will demonstrate the wide range of formal and popular styles of the time, from polyphonic diferencias to strummed chord patterns with improvisation.