

Ohio Medieval Colloquium

Saturday June 28th 2014

10:30-4:30 p.m.

Columbus State Community College

Workforce Development Building Room 402

315 Cleveland Avenue, Columbus, Ohio

Schedule

10:30-10:50 Introductions and Re-introductions (Coffee, and light snacks will be served)

Opening Remarks 10:50

Session 1 11:00-12:30

“Queen Wealtheow in the Context of the Nordic Valkyrie Tradition”
Dominic Heinrici, Ohio University.

"Galahad's Multiple Personalities in Le Morte D'Arthur."
Peter Schwartz, Elmira College

“Coats and Collars: Animal fashions in the Early Modern Period”
John Friedman, Professor Emeritus, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Lunch 12:30-1:20
Courtesy of Columbus State Community College

Session 2

1:30-3:00

“Teaching an Old Text New Tricks: Reevaluating Cookery Production and Use in Late Medieval France and England”

Sarah Peters Kernan, The Ohio State University.

“Love vs. Law: Affect Un-Makes the Nation in Chaucer’s Man of Law’s Tale”

Bonnie J. Erwin, Wilmington College

Plague and War: The Black Death and Military Requisitioning during the campaigns of Edward III.”

Sarah Douglas, The Ohio State University

Break 3:00-3:10

Session 3

3:10-4:10

“Social Media and the Message: reconciling differences between the digital and the analog”

Helen Davies, University of Mississippi

“The Oath of the Night’s Watch (Game of Thrones) and the Rule of the Templars”

Tim Davis, Columbus State Community College

4:15 Business meeting

5:00 Dinner at Columbus Brewing Company (self-pay)

525 Short St., Columbus.